To whom it may concern

It is clear from court documents and other public information that Microsoft has acted illegally and from all indications will continue to do so in spite of any penalties imposed or agreed to. It is becoming increasing clear that the power that Microsoft holds is not only greater than the other participants in it's market, but it greater even than the Department of Justice itself. The performance of the Dept. of Justice and the political and legal system as a whole does not speak well for Democracy in this country.
